

The College of Architecture and Design Welcomes Entries to the 2026 FIVE IMAGES Scholarship Award Program

The program invites talented incoming architecture & design students to present five images of creative work that showcase past accomplishments, highlight current interests and describe future aspirations. The faculty invites works in a range of media, at varying scales, and with a variety of intentions.

Eligibility

Eligibility is limited to students who have been accepted into the College of Architecture and Design (CoAD) as freshmen or as undergraduate transfers in any of the following programs:

Architecture (BSc)
Game Design (BFA)
Graphic Design (AAS, BFA)
Product Design (BSc)
Interior Design (BSc)

Students must be beginning coursework in the fall semester.

The Five Images

Each student is invited to submit up to five images or videos of creative work. Images may be hand- or digitally- generated, dynamic or static. Submissions may consist of work in any media including drawing, painting, woodworking, performance, graphics, metalworking, fabric, sculpture, fashion, music, video, installations, glassworking, origami, and photography. We encourage students to submit images of work that address the design process and conceptual studies as well as finished projects. We want you to show us your best work.

Submittal Procedure

All static images must be submitted digitally in jpg format. Dynamic work may be submitted in gif, mp4 or other appropriate formats. Please submit each image/video as a separate file, titled using the following format:

2026_STUDENT NAME_FILE NAME

Deadline

Please submit all work via this form no later than 5:00 p.m. EST, February 1, 2026.

All entrants will receive confirmation of receipt of their submissions by February 6, 2026.

Selection of Winners

A jury of College of Architecture and Design faculty members will review all submissions and award scholarships. Awards of between $2,500 and $10,000 will be offered, based on the level of achievement of the individual student entries.

These awards are renewable for up to four years and will be applied by Lawrence Technological University to the cost of tuition for one of the CoAD programs cited previously.

Winners will be notified by February 28, 2026.

Five Images Exhibition

Award-winning work will be on display in March 2026 in the College's 16:9 Gallery. Other creatives previously featured in this gallery include Rafaël Rozendaal, Beau Stanton, and the Hygienic Dress League. The College will also honor awardees at a reception in the spring of 2026. You will be contacted about those details.

Questions

Questions about the FIVE IMAGES Scholarship Award Program may be submitted to tstanko@ltu.edu. Questions received within 48 hours of the submission deadline will be addressed as time permits.
