

Pronoun Identity

Enrollment Services

Lawrence Technological University (LTU) recognizes addressing someone by their correct pronouns is one of the most basic ways to show respect for their gender identity. LTU strives to not assume someone’s pronouns and to use the correct pronouns for students in every possible aspect of university business and education.

Lawrence Technological University (LTU) students may designate their pronouns. The pronouns selected by the student will be used in all possible areas of university business and education to guide faculty, staff and administration as to a student’s pronouns. Student pronouns currently appear on our advising site, Canvas, and various reports.

Gender Identity: One’s internal sense of self and their gender, whether that is man, woman, neither or both.
